CAMPHORATED CARBOLIC ACID.

AN invaluable application for Sores, Ulcers, &c., in man or animals. When painted or dropped on the sores it destroys all septic germs, and immediately establishes the process of cure. Nothing can excel it for Galls, Sore-Back, or Mange. Vide letter from "Glencairn" (a Madras officer experienced in Horses and Dogs) in the Asian, October 25, 1880.

Per bottle, Re. 1 ; Per pound, Rs. 4.

D. S. KEMP & Co.,
SASSOON HOUSE, BOMBAY.

BAILDON'S APERIENT FRUIT LOZENGES.

PREPARED from the bark of RHAMNUS FRANGULA, which has been described on high authority as "THE ONLY REAL APERIENT WE HAVE," as it cures, instead of increasing, the after-tendency to constipation. These are vastly superior to the French Lozenges and Pastilles so much in vogue during the last few years.

Per Bottle, Re. 1-12.

CAUCASIAN INSECT POWDER.

A MASS of spontaneous testimony has been received from all parts of India proving the surpassing efficacy of this powder in destroying Fleas and other noxious insects in Dogs and domestic animals. "Boon to sportsmen," "absolutely and thoroughly efficacious," "most satisfactory," "economical," "unparalleled," "admirable" and such like expletives which have been applied to it by no means exaggerate its excellence. Vide letter by "Glencairn" in the Asian of February 3, 1880. Be careful not to accept any other Powder as "the same thing." Ours is obtained from a Special Source and is endowed with an activity not approached by any other.

Tins Re. 1, Rs. 1-12, and Rs. 3-8.

The present consignment is a small one, but will be followed regularly by others as the demand may require.

COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

TUESDAY EVENING, DEC. 14, 1880.

CONSOLS in London yesterday receded from 99 to 98⅞, but French Rentes were unaltered at 119½, and Enfaced Rupee Paper at 82 for Fours and 89⅜ for Fours-and-half.

In the General Produce markets Coffee and Cocoanut-oil are unchanged. Linseed shows a downward tendency, Calcutta, to arrive, being quoted 6d. per quarter lower. Metals are all quoted at previous prices.

The Manchester Piecegoods market yesterday closed firm; and the same tone is reported of Cotton in Liverpool, the day's sales being estimated at 12,000 bales, of which 700 were Surats. Mid.-Uplands are quoted 1-16d. higher on the spot, and 1-32d. to arrive; but no change whatever is made in Surats. In New York ready Mid.-Uplands are still given at 11¼ cents, but March shipment has receded from 12·29 to 12·22 cents per lb. The receipts of Cotton at the U. S. ports to date are as follows:—

	1880.	1879.	1878.
Monday's receipts	43,000	45,000	32,000
Three days' ,,	83,000	93,000	79,000
Total since 1st Sept.	2,854,000	2,670,000	2,241,000

Bar Silver in London yesterday advanced from 51 15-16d. to 52d. per oz., equivalent to within a fraction of 1-8 per rupee.

EXCHANGE.—We opened this morning at yesterday's closing rates, but advices from Calcutta coming firmer, and a fair amount of private paper being offered, an advance of 1-32d. was established, and has been maintained up to the close. A considerable business has been done during the day in private bills, but the demand for remittance has been slack, partly, no doubt, owing to a feeling that higher rates will be obtainable later on, but mainly to the fact that import business latterly has been extremely slack. We quote to-day for ready bills:—

Bank Bills on demand	1s. 7 25-32d.	per rupee.
Do. telegraphic	1s. 7¾d.	,,
Do. 3 months' sight	1s. 7¼d.	,,
Credits, 3 ,, ,,	1s. 8 1-32d.	,,
Documents, 3 ,, ,,	1s. 8 1-16d.	,,
Francs, 3 ,, ,,	2f. 11¼c.	,,

On Calcutta we still quote par for demand, 60 days' sight nominal.

GOVERNMENT PAPER has shown decided weakness to-day. A number of small holders have come out as sellers, and as buyers are few, rates are, to some extent, nominal. We quote: Fours Rs. 100, Fours-and-a-half Rs. 108¾; but these may be taken as practically sellers' quotations.

SHARES.—The market has ruled very quiet, and transactions have not been numerous. Bank of Bombays are unaltered at Rs. 735. In Land Companies there is no alteration, and in Press shares we have only to notice an advance of Rs. 25 in Colaba. Spinning and Weaving Mill shares may be called steady, although our list of prices exhibits some few changes. Hindustan have declined Rs. 5, and Hyderabad Rs. 75; but there is an advance of Rs. 5 in Khatao Muckonjee, Rs. 10 in Jewraz Balloo, and Rs. 35 in Madras United. Thacker and Co., Ld., have changed hands at Rs. 150, an advance of Rs. 5.

COTTON to-day opened somewhat irregular, but as the day wore on rather more firmness was observable, and in most instances an advance of Re. 1 to Rs. 2 per candy has been established. Hingunghaut is an exception to the general rule, a considerable quantity having been bought at Rs. 237 for ready and this month's delivery; but Broach is firm at Rs. 242, and for good Omras Rs. 225 has been paid for both January and February delivery. At the close sellers are very firm, and although home quotations scarcely warrant our present level, the probability is that anything like a firm report from Liverpool to-morrow morning will lead to a further advance here.

LINSEED shows great weakness, both for ready and future delivery. Ready may now be quoted at Rs. 6-10 per cwt., and of May delivery New Crop re-sales are in the market at Rs. 6-5.

WHEAT is steady, the dealers, so far, being able to deliver their receipts against previous sales, but home rates do not warrant current figures. We quote Soft White ready at Rs. 3½ per candy.

FREIGHTS are quiet, and for Liverpool by steam 35s. may now be quoted as the rate both for weight and measurement. For the Mediterranean 42s. 6d., payable here, is the figure named, and for Trieste and Venice the regular lines have been booking forward at 45s.

THE PIECE GOODS market is very quiet the day's sales being only estimated at about 300 packages. Prices are not quotably lower, but to do any business of importance sellers would have to make some concession The excessive stocks on the spot and to arrive moreover render any immediate improvement unlikely.

COALS are firm at previous rates, with very few sellers to arrive.

THE Government, it appears, have deferred opening portion of the P. N. S. Railway to Haji Shah) till the 1st January next, and the ball and ers attendant on the ceremony do not come off at Rawal Pindi till after New Year's day.

The election by ballot, which took place on the 13th and 14th instant, for the election of the Chairman and Deputy Chairman of the Chamber of Commerce for 1881, resulted in the Hon. James N. Graham, of the firm of Messrs. W. and A. Graham and Co., being elected Chairman, and Mr. Edward Comber, of the firm of Messrs. Lyon and Co., being elected Deputy Chairman.

LAST night's concert at the Town Hall, in aid of the funds of the Indo-British Institution, was entirely successful. The attendance was very large, and included H. E. the Governor and H. E. the Commander-in-Chief. We reserve a detailed notice. Mrs. Adams had evidently over-taxed her strength, and, we are sorry to say, fell down in a faint in the middle of a song.

THE provincial accounts of the North-Western Provinces and Oudh for 1879-80 show a retrenchment of over 15 lakhs in the expenditure on railways and public works. The saving under the head of railways amounted to Rs. 3,88,000, but it was only a postponement. Under public works a saving of Rs. 11,21,000 is recorded, which was to a great extent real, though the effect of the measure will probably be to necessitate increased expenditure in future.

THE latest official report on the state of the weather and prospects of the crops throughout India states that heavy rain had fallen in the southern districts of Madras and in the northern districts of that presidency, and in Mysore and Coorg there were slight showers. No rain fell elsewhere during the week. Rain is much required in parts of the Punjab and in a few districts of the North-Western Provinces and Oudh and Central India. Prospects in most parts of the Empire are satisfactory, and the spring crops promise well.

IN an article upon "much of a muchness" as applied to the army the Pioneer observes that in no department more than the Commissariat is it desirable that the principle "much of a muchness" should be abolished. The work that the officers are called upon to do requires talent of no mean order ; and this more especially in time of war. And yet we offer no inducements to the younger officers to work up to a high standard of proficiency. Once having joined the department, his promotion is a question of time. If zealous and hard-working, his only reward probably will be being posted where the work is heaviest, while a lazy senior drawing pay of a higher grade is left to carry on light work at some out-of-the-way station. A large portion of the cost of the army is connected with Commissariat charges. It is notorious that in many cases the subordinates acquire more money than they could possibly have by savings. The only remedy for this is keen, unremitting scrutiny. It were futile to expect that individuals will keep this up for a number of consecutive years unless each feels that his promotion from grade to grade depends not on seniority, but the manner in which he performs his work. Officers will be what the system in vogue makes them. Pure economy consists not in cheeseparing, but in employing the best material to perform the necessary work. Improvement in the available material can only be brought about by abandoning the "much of a muchness" principle, and making the younger officers fully realise that promotion depends on merit, not on length of service.

THE Lahore paper is of opinion that recruiting for the Indian army might advantageously be extended. Our contemporary says :—The Hazara and Eimak tribes would supply men fully equal to the Afghan and Himalayan mountaineers, whom we so largely employ. They are poor and eager for service, and have no sympathy with their Afghan oppressors. The various sections of these tribes comprise some three-quarters of a million of souls, occupying the mountainous tract stretching from Herat to Kabul and from Kandahar to Kohistan ; and in the valleys of Argandab and Helmund the Kandahar regiments would find an ample recruiting field. Similarly the Nahrai tribes on the Lower Helmund, and in the debateable land between Biluchistan and Persia would supply numbers of men just as susceptible of being trained into soldiers as the wild Afridi. Nearer our frontier there are the Khakurs, Khetrans, Mooseizais, and numerous other bodies of warlike peasantry, to whom the pay and the prospects of the Sirkar's service would have great attractions, if once the possibility of entering it were revealed to them by the recruiting sergeant. We cannot expect recruits from an untried field to present themselves of their own accord. The idea has probably never occurred to a Jakeeri Hazara of the Upper Argandab, or a Nahroi of Gurmsid, that such a chance is open to him. Once the first recruits were enlisted from these sources, others of the tribes would probably speedily follow. This has frequently been seen in our present native army, in the case of classes like Jats, or Dogras, or Muzbis, who never enlisted therein till it occurred to some officer to try a fresh recruiting field, when it was suddenly discovered that the new class of recruits made excellent soldiers and came readily to our ranks. In fact, Central Asia teems with excellent materials whereof to make soldiers, and the experiment of recruiting on the spot is worth trying.

IT is stated that Guy's Hospital, which has now 180 beds closed to the public, is further, £10,000 deficient financially on the results of the year's operations. This is a curious comment on recent expenditure on the treasurer's house and the chapel.

THE British and Italian Governments, a Constantinople telegram states, remonstrated some time since with the Bulgarian Cabinet respecting the delay in the dismantling of the fortresses, the conferring of the chief commands in the army upon Russian officers, and the reported intrigues of Bulgarian emissaries in Eastern Roumelia. The Bulgarian Government have now sent a reply, which is said to be regarded as unsatisfactory.

A SERVICE paper is told by what it has always found a trustworthy authority that the changes spoken of as contemplated by Mr. Childers may be considered as already determined upon. The active list of general officers is to be reduced to the number actually required for commands, with a small margin over for selection for vacancies, a graduated scale of pensions being provided for the remaining general officers. The present colonels of regiments will, of course, retain their emoluments, but after April 1 the appointments will be purely honorary. It is understood, too, that a considerable reduction will be made in the colonels on the active list, the pension list being proportionately increased. The principle of selection for promotion to field rank is to be enforced, which is expected to do away with the necessity for the compulsory retirement of captains. The changes, in fact, will be so sweeping that the warrant of 1878 will be not so much amended as cancelled.

THE anti-Jewish agitation has become serious in Germany. The Germans declare that the profits of commerce all go to Jews, who monopolise the control of the Liberal press, enter Parliament in too great numbers, and, as they think, pervert the course of German politics. They, therefore, earnestly entreat the Chancellor to prevent further Jewish immigration, to keep Jews out of office, and to prevent them from becoming professors. They ask, in fact, for a revival of disabilities. Meanwhile, the Jews are excluded by aristocratic feeling from becoming officers, and are the objects of frequent insult in cafés and public places. So serious is the commotion that the subject is to be brought forward in Parliament in a formal debate, the Jews evidently suspecting the Emperor—who many years ago complained of their influence at the elections—of favouring their assailants. It does not appear that any definite charge is levelled against the Jews except that of being too successful ; but the indefinite feeling is that they are governed by views of interest and by the desire for luxury alone, and have neither patriotism nor Christian principle.

THE Examiner points out that the re-organisation of the Caucasian army, which has been in progress some time, is at length complete. On a peace footing the army will be maintained at 175,000 men, and on an outbreak of war this will be raised to 300,000. Such a force on the confines of Persia and the Caspian—the latter the true base of any Russian operations against India—is not to be regarded with indifference ; and whenever a war breaks out between Russia and England, will inevitably take a prominent part in the struggle. Every year witnesses greater facilities of transport in the Caucasian region. Formerly troops used to march all the way from Russia to Tiflis, or be conveyed in batches of one hundred or so from Odessa in small steamers. Now-a-days the Moscow cruisers convey 1,500 to 2,000 at a time from Odessa to Poti, whence they are swiftly despatched by rail to Tiflis. In a few months time the line between Tiflis and Baku will be complete, and then it will be possible for troops to arrive at the Caspian coast from Odessa or Sebastopol in five days, or at Astrabad in about a week.

THE Pall Mall Gazette :—The young leader of the Fourth Party declared at Portsmouth the other night that "the whole Irish question was bosh." Mr. Evelyn Ashley retorts that "the whole conduct of the Fourth Party might be summed up as bosh." But Mr. Ashley, who happens to be an Irish landlord, gives more help than these elegancies to the question of the hour. "The Irish peasant," he said, "was not distinguished for a love of hard work, but that was greatly owing to the conditions under which he was brought up. If possible, without confiscation or violation of the landlord's property, they should take the rent question out of the way. With opportunities of becoming the owners of their own property they would undoubtedly give a stimulus to industry and produce which had worked wonders in every other part of the world where the peasant proprietor system had been tried." Many another Irish landlord, there is good reason to believe, is quite ready in his own mind to admit this, and to agree with Mr. Ashley in the following proposition also :—"The Irish farmer undoubtedly had a great grievance in the arbitrary raising of his rent, and if they were to do good for Ireland he would like to see rent courts established. He would secure to the tenant that he should not have his rent arbitrarily raised, but he should be secure in his holding as long as he paid a moderate rent to the satisfaction of the county court judge. Such a measure would greatly allay the more extreme grievances of the Irish tenant."

THE Attorney General in England has, it appears, instituted legal proceedings against the telephone companies for infringing the rights of the Post-office, and the suit was expected to be heard the week after the last mail left. The Government rely upon the Act of 1869, which says that the Postmaster-General "shall, from and after the passing of this Act, have the exclusive privilege of transmitting telegrams and performing all the incidental services," &c. And as to the scope of this exclusive right, it is enacted that the term telegram "shall mean any message or other communication transmitted by telegraph." Similarly the term telegraph is defined "to mean and include any apparatus for transmitting messages or other communications by means of electric signals." The application of these definitions to telephony and the telephone is fiercely contested, the witnesses on either side being for the most part professional scientists. It happens, remarks the Examiner, that the telephone is accoustical as well as electrical. Any definition of it, therefore, by an expert will be coloured very much by whichever characteristic he prefers to dwell upon most. From one point of view Professor Bell's and Mr. Edison's devices are mere varieties of magneto-electrical and chemico-electrical appliances ; from another, very ingenious speaking-trumpets. Turning from these technicalities, however, the one question that concerns the general public is, whether communication by telephone may in future be left to unrestricted competition, or whether it shall be regulated, like the telegraphs, by the State. The friends of the companies allege that the Post-office is not likely to afford the same facilities that private undertakings do, and that in any case payment for a licence will fall upon the customers. On the part of the Government it is urged that competition has invariably ended in gigantic private monopoly, far more burdensome than if wielded by the State ; and, finally, that the earnings of the companies are partly extracted from the customer's pocket to pay dividends, and partly diverted from a legitimate channel of national revenue. To determine these issues an enormous sum of money will propably be spent. It can hardly be doubted that they were capable of equitable compromise ; but if that be the case, whoever has forced them into a court of law has incurred a very grave responsibility.

THE latest Gazette of India notifies the appointment of Colonel C. M. MacGregor, C. B., C.S.I., C.I.E., S.C., Honorary Aide-de-Camp to the Governor-General, 1st Assistant Quartermaster-General, to officiate as Quartermaster-General in India, with the local rank of Major-General, vice Major-General C. C. Johnson, C.B., resigned.

WE (Civil and Military Gazette) are informed by our correspondent at Kabul that three Russian officers have arrived at Balkh on their way to Kabul, charged with a mission of congratulation on his accession to the Amir Abdul Rahman. The city of Bokhara was illuminated for three nights in honour of this event. The state of the Afghan capital is still extremely unsettled, and it is believed that a projected attempt to collect the arrears of revenue of the past two years will precipitate another outbreak. The Quazi Abdul Kadar is said to be the chief favourite and councillor of the Amir at the present time, and the octroi duties of the city have been assigned to him as an allowance.

INSPECTION OF THE E-B R. H. A. BY THE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF.

H. E. THE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF, accompained by the Head-Quarters and Personal Staff, inspected E-B R. H. A. in their camp at 10-30 A. M. to-day. General Aitchison, C. B., me the Commander-in-Chief on the ground. His Excellency walked round the horses, and inspected the guns. The men of the battery fell in in front of the guns at about 11 a. m., when General Warre spoke a few words of welcome. The Commander-in-Chief said that the men had well sustained the high reputation of the R. H. A., and that from first to last—from the march to Kandahar to the action with the Wali's mutinous troops on the Helmund and the unfortunate affair at Maiwand—he had heard nothing but praise of the conduct of the battery. A subscription had been raised in Bombay to welcome them back and give them a dinner. The Governor would be present, and doubtless address a few words to them. The Commander-in-Chief himself would be at the dinner, and hoped the men would enjoy themselves after their long march from Kandahar to India.

BOMBAY TOWN COUNCIL.

THE weekly meeting of the Council was held at the Municipal Offices yesterday, when there were present —Dr. Thomas Blaney, chairman, Sir Frank Souter, Kt., C. S. I., Dr. Cook, Messrs. Douglas, Muncherjee N. Banajee, Nowrojee Furdoonjee, Ragboonath N. Khote, Jr. C. Gangjee, Rahimtoola M. Sayani, and the Hon'ble Rao Saheb V. N. Mandlik, C. S. I. Sanction was given to the expenditure of Rs. 769 from a balance of Rs. 6,197, available from the grant of Rs. 25,000 sanctioned for the construction of the Wadee Bunder and Prere Roads, to meet the estimated cost of constructing semi-circular arch drains for the new roads from Wadee Bunder to the Hancock Bridge, Mazagon. Sanction was also given to the payment of Rs. 150 to Sir Thomas Thompson and Co. for the cost of removing and rebuilding parts of the wall and railing of the Falkland Road garden. Sanction was also given to a transfer of Rs. 108 to meet the charges incurred in October last for cutting channels, &c., for the passage of water from off the flats at Mahaluxmee. The draft memorial to the Viceroy prepared by the chairman, protesting against the withdrawal of Rs. 15,000 from the Government contribution towards the cost of the police and the diversion of the same for the purposes of maintaining the C. D. Hospital, was considered carefully, and adopted by the Council, after certain alterations suggested by members had been made. The meeting then adjourned.

A CHAPLAIN WANTED.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—Quetta contains, probably, a thousand Europeans. A large proportion are sick : many men from Kandahar, who are too ill to move down with the convoys, are left there to die ; some five or six men are buried in a week—or have been lately—and yet there is no chaplain to minister to the poor fellows. If the place is to be a permanent garrison, surely a chaplain will have to be appointed sooner or later ; and if so, why should he not be sent at once ?

Quetta, Dec. 6. NEGLECTED.

THE DUKE OF WELLINGTON'S BOMBAY RESIDENCE.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—The writer of a note in your issue of Saturday anent the site of the house in which the illustrious Duke of Wellington resided while in Bombay has awakened in me some dormant memories of by-gone days.

Upwards of six-and-thirty years ago I had the honour of being an occupant of the same house. My landlord was Mr. Cursetjee Manockjee, now long deceased, who was the father of our worthy townsman, Mr. Manekji Kharsedji. (You will please note that, in compliance with the requirements of modern scientific literature, I am compelled to spell the son's name secundum artem.)

For the benefit of the curious in such matters and historians in general, I may state further that the house, which was called Surrey Cottage, stood at about half-way up the now non-existent eastern brow of Malabar Hill. The excavated débris of that part of the hill, as many of your readers are aware, was utilised some years ago for the purposes of the Back Bay reclamation. The house comprised a somewhat spacious and lofty hall, with wings and long verandas at the sides and back part. In front there was a porch, to which led two carriage-ways from different directions of the large compound. One of them passed by the still-existing stable near the siri. Your correspondent remarks that its walls are standing. He might have added that it has a roof, and that it continues to be used as a stable.

The hall commanded a nice view of Back Bay and a portion of Girgaum, also the Esplanade and the Fort. The Duke, with his eagle eye, must have more than once, I presume, scanned the scene with some interest. Of an evening one of the most striking sights that met the eyes of myself and my friends, as we sat on the landing of the tall flight of stone steps which led up to the hall from the porch, was the long line of lugubrious flaring fires which burned at the Hindu cremation-ground, then not screened, as now, by the high wall on the west, or sea, side.

Cholera was frequently rampant in those times. Arthur Crawford (for whom I trust a statue at least is looming in the not distant future) was most probably going to school at that period. A good many boys had to cease their studies for a time, as cholera invaded the quondam stinking lanes and alleys and bazaars of this city, and cleared away the feculent accumulations of ages, thus removing the fertile sources of manifold dire diseases. By night the fires on the plain by the cemeteries were a very correct and significant index of the prevalent mortality, which was in proportion to their number.

Whether the Duke's nocturnal rest was ever disturbed at Surrey Cottage by adventures with reptiles I cannot say, not having heard. It was certainly quite at home in domicile. On the first night of my occupancy thereof I was rather startled, on entering my bedroom, to find it in possession of two or three young snakes, which were gliding playfully along the sides of the room. They had evidently been enjoying a right of usance for some time previously, and seemed quite unapprehensive of the summary eviction which I had to exercise. The polished chunam floors of the verandas were so cool in warm weather that the neighbouring snakes and serpents (cobras amongst the lot) came and occasionally reposed thereon, as though they feared no disturbance. I remember having been suddenly called up one morning by a friend residing with me to witness the execution of a splendid rock-snake, near seven feet in length, which lay extended on the floor of the western veranda, taking a cool snooze. A charge of small shot which my friend discharged at its head from his fowling-piece consigned it to a permanent slumber.

Mr. Cursetjee Manockjee knew the Duke per sonally, and had supplied his army with provisions—principally rice, if I am not oblivious of what he told me. He always spoke to me most enthusiastically of the Duke, whom he regarded as a perfect hero. But poor old Cursetjee had his troubles, and they were multitudinous. Out of his transactions with the Indian Government there arose a mighty lawsuit brought by him against the Honourable East India Company. In the midst of his eulogies of the Duke he could not help bitterly reverting to his case and his grievances. He had fortified himself with the opinions of great lawyers, one of whom was the eminent advocate Chitty. All of them were in his favour. Equity and right upheld his claims, but alas! he could not succeed against powerful John Company, who, however, offered him a liberal compromise. But Cursetjee had something of the Iron Duke's nature in him. He would not give in, and was game to the last.

MUSIC AT THE ESPLANADE BANDSTAND.—H. E. the Governor's band will play at the Esplanade bandstand every alternate Thursday until further notice.

EVADING THE LIQUOR LICENCE.—Cursetjee Jamasjee, Jamsetjee Dorabjee, and Mahadoo Ghoroo were yesterday each fined Rs. 20 by Mr. C. P. Cooper for selling country-liquor without a licence from the Collector of Bombay.

THEFT AT LOVE LANE, BYCULLA.—A Mahomedan woman named Kuteeja, residing in Love Lane, Byculla, reported to the police on Monday last that during her absence from home a gold ring, six gold coins, and Rs. 250 in cash, an aggregate value of Rs. 278, had been stolen from her premises.

ACCIDENT.—Dhamoo Bhow, a native farrier employed at Messrs. Stephen & Co., Veterinary Surgeons, Girgaum, while shoeing a horse, received a severe lacerated wound of about six inches in length on the left leg, caused by the animal falling. He was conveyed to the Goculdas Tejpal Hospital, where he is under treatment.

LOST OR STOLEN.—Goolabbhai Raijee, a clerk in the employ of the B. B. and C. I. Railway Company, residing at Parel, reported to the police on Monday that whilst he was standing at Pydownee, looking at the taboot procession passing that road, he lost from his jacket pocket a gold (twisted pattern) armlet, valued at Rs. 400.

ILLEGAL POSSESSION OF OPIUM.—Govind Gunnoo was yesterday convicted by Mr. P. Ryan of having in his possession a quantity of opium, valued at Rs. 48, reasonably suspected of having been stolen or fraudulently obtained from the goods-shed of the G. I. P. Railway Company at Waree Bunder, and failing to account satisfactorily how he became possessed of the same. He was sentenced to three months' rigorous imprisonment.

H. H. NIZAM'S REGULAR TROOPS.—An investigation has been going on now for some time into the conduct of the wing of the 2nd Regiment, Regular Troops stationed at Chudderghaut. It appears that the men broke out into open mutiny, and refused to obey the orders of their Commanding Officer, or Native Adjutant, against whom they preferred some very serious charges. The Commanding Officer, Captain Boardman, and the Adjutant were placed under arrest, and some eighteen or twenty men in confinement. It is now nearly two months since the affair occurred.—Deccan Times.

LECTURE BY THE REV. A. G. CANE.—On Monday a very instructive lecture was addressed to the members of the Bombay Church Institute by the Rev. Mr. Cane, who after being formally introduced to the assembly, kept them highly interested for about an hour. Mr. Cane, who has seen a good deal of fighting on the frontier, began by giving a description of the different places from Sibi en route to Kandahar, some anecdotes which he related being very amusing, especially that recounting the invitation he received to dine with a friend, when he thought he was eating a nice piece of beef, which eventually turned out to be part of a camel, which had been stolen from the camp, and killed and sold in the bazaar as fresh beef. His description of boosa, too, was very amusing. This, Mr. Cane said, was the chaff, which is got from the wheat-stalks, which after being cut down two and three times, was threshed very fine, and then becomes boosa. He also brought with him a number of Afghan weapons, such as tulwars used by the Gazees and other tribes. The next entertainment will be a penny-reading, of which due notice will be given ; and any gentlemen wishing to take part in it should send their names to Mr. J. Gardiner, Hony. Secretary, Bombay Church Institute, Esplanade.

THE BILLIMORA FISHERMEN.—"P. H. G." writes to us as follows with reference to the fishermen's dues at Billimora :—In his capacity as landlord of a major portion of land in the town of Billimora the Desai of Gandevi annually collects the money due to him by those (fishermen included) that own houses standing on his land. This is well known to everyone except, it appears, the advocates of the lungotiralas. If, therefore, "Billimoria," N. F. Billimoria, and others who appear in public prints have any real cause of grievance, they ought to know where to go to for redress. Why don't they go straight to the Srimant Sirkar ? What good of their blowing horns outside ! I do not see, on the face of such a fact as above, how the fishermen can escape from the payment of ground-rent. This and several other matters, as I lately heard, have been enquired into by a commission appointed by the Dewan, Sir Mahadavrow. People will shortly know how far the Desai is justified in collecting his dues at Billimora. There are other irrelevant matters mixed up by N. F. Billimoria, such as roads, schools, and dispensaries, said to be not looked into by the Srimant Sirkar. Why don't the well-wishers of Billimora agitate about them, instead of wasting their energies in crying "wolf!" about their fishermen clients, and thereby indirectly lead these poor fellows from their proper business ?

DISTRIBUTION OF PRIZES AT THE SCOTTISH ORPHANAGE.

THE annual distribution of prizes to the pupils of the Scottish orphanage schools took place on Monday afternoon. A large number of visitors, including Sir James and Lady Fergusson, H. E. Admiral Gore-Jones and Mrs. Gore-Jones, the Hon. Lionel and Mrs. Ashburner, and many of the principal European residents of Bombay, were present on this interesting occasion. Several of the visitors were conducted over the schools, and expressed their admiration of the arrangements made for the well-being of the pupils, who are fortunate in being placed under the care of Mr. and Mrs. Duthie. In one of the rooms some specimens of needlework were exhibited, and these proved the high proficiency of the girls in this useful art. It was intended that the proceedings should be commenced at half-past four, but Sir James Fergusson, who was to distribute the prizes, did not arrive until nearly five o'clock. His Excellency, on entering the room, hastened to explain that his late arrival was due to the fact that he had to drive through the great crowds assembled in the streets on the occasion of the Mohurrum festival. A hymn having been sung, prayer was offered by the Rev. Jeffrey ; after which His Excellency called upon Mr. Spencer to read the annual report, of which the following is a copy.

The committee of the Bombay Scottish Orphanage have the pleasure to submit their report for the year 1880. The number of boarders now on the rolls of the Orphanage is 89, of which 43 are girls and 46 are boys. During the year a total of 31 was reached, which is the highest number ever yet at one time resident in the Orphanage. The number of day scholars is 17, being 7 more than there were last year. The health of the inmates has, the committee are thankful to report, been very good, and there has been no serious sickness in the school through out the year now drawing to a close. The committee are glad to receive Mr. Duthie's testimony as to the uniform good conduct of the children during the year, while as regards the progress made in their studies, the report of Mr. Jacob, Educational Inspector, N. E. Division, who examined the children in November last, is eminently satisfactory. Mr. Jacob writes :—"I have much pleasure in stating that the classes were, if possible, in a more efficient state than when I examined them in the year 1878, and that the Orphanage has secured Rs. 624 more as a grant-in-aid than at the previous examination." The amount of the educational grant, viz., Rs. 2,412, or Rs. 28 per head of the number presented, is far in excess of any sum obtained by the Orphanage in any previous year under the system of payment by results. The committee are glad to recognise that the creditable result of the examination is wholly due to the thorough and efficient training the pupils have received at the hands of Mr. Duthie and his assistants ; and they feel sure that Mr. Jacob's report will be as gratifying to Mr. Duthie and the pupil-teachers as it is to the friends of the Orphanage. The examination in scripture knowledge has been kindly undertaken by the Rev. Dr. Macpherson, whose report is annexed. As the subject of the education of European and Eurasian children is now engaging the attention of Government, the committee have submitted proposals, which, if favourably considered, as the committee trust may be the case, will enable the society to extend their sphere of usefulness. As regards the financial condition of the society, the collections, both in Bombay and in the mofussil, up to the present time about equal those of last year, but it will be remembered that the current year was commenced with a debit balance of Rs. 300, and the deficit at present amounts to about Rs. 2,500. The committee trust that the amount of the subscriptions yet to be received will enable them to commence the new year free of debt. It is especially gratifying for the committee to notice among the subscribers' names the increase of late years in the number of those who were formerly inmates of the Orphanage. In some instances not only have liberal donations been received from old pupils, but they have assisted in collecting considerable sums for the Orphanage both at up-country stations and out of India, at such places as Zanzibar, &c. A concert was held at the Town Hall on the 26th ultimo, to which H. E. the Governor and Lady Fergusson were so kind as to extend their patronage. The proceeds of this concert amounted to nearly Rs. 1,000, and the warm thanks of the committee have been tendered to the promoters of the concert, and to all who kindly assisted in making it so successful. On Sir James Fergusson's occasions, a special appeal was circulated in Bombay, and resulted in the addition of about Rs. 1,000 to the Orphanage funds. The committee would desire to bring prominently to notice in this year's report a movement which they have just inaugurated. The increase to the number of children since the opening of the new building has compelled the committee at the end of every year to make urgent appeal to the friends of the Orphanage, in order to make up for deficiency of income. It has, therefore, been resolved to open a subscription-list for an additional endowment fund to meet this deficiency, and also with a view to providing Mr. Duthie with a retiring allowance whenever his connection with the Orphanage may cease. While the committee trust that that time is yet distant, and that both Mr. and Mrs. Duthie may long have health and strength given them to carry on the work they have so devotedly and efficiently performed for eighteen years, they are of opinion that the time has come when a commencement should be made towards the establishment of a pension fund. The committee are hopeful that if a sum of, say, Rs. 25,000 is raised towards an additional endowment, Government may be willing to supplement it by the grant of an equal sum. One friend has generously offered Rs. 1,000, and another has already kindly contributed Rs. 500. some smaller sums have also been received. While thankfully acknowledging these donations, the committee desire earnestly to draw the attention of the friends of the Orphanage to the subscription-list which has now been opened. The best thanks of the committee are again due to friends who have supplied all medicines free of charge, and thus relieving the finances of a large item of expenditure. They have also to tender their warmest thanks to two medical gentlemen for the kind help so promptly rendered by them in cases of sickness, and to two friends, Messrs. A. Mackenzie and Rogers, who bore the expense of the purchase and erection of a large boiler for the washing-machine. The following gifts were made to the Orphanage during the year, and are here thankfully acknowledged :—The Leisure Hour, the Boys' Own Paper, the Illustrated London News, the Bombay Guardian, two bags of rice, a mincing-machine. It only remains for the committee to offer to Mr. and Mrs. Duthie their hearty acknowledgments for their successful management of the Orphanage during the year, and for the careful supervision they have continued to exercise over it in all its details. Also to Mrs. Good, the girls' matron, the pupil-teachers, Elizabeth Stevenson, Julia Reilly, Ellen Dyson, and Margaret Spalding, and Mr. Janardhun Punt, the Mahratta pundit, for their zealous co-operation with Mr. and Mrs. Duthie, and the efficient manner in which they have performed their respective duties.

His Excellency then said :—This is the first opportunity I have had of testifying the interest which I take in this institution, as not as practically acquainted with it as I hope to be before long, for, as you are aware, the Government has been absent from Bombay since my arrival here, and I have therefore had but few opportunities as yet of making your acquaintance. But this institution is not unknown to me, and I would be wanting in a sense of my duty if I did not show some of that interest which my predecessors have taken in it. It would be strange, indeed, if I did not, seeing that I am a native of Scotland, feel an interest in an institution which numbers among its warmest supporters so many of my fellow countrymen. I am glad to know that you are not of such narrow tendencies as to confine your operations to children of Scotch parents only, for deserving orphans needing its services are welcome to it. I am exceedingly glad to be able to congratulate the friends of the Scottish Orphanage on the increased measure of success attending it. It is most gratifying to know that the system of payment by results, which here, as at home, is adopted as the best test of such an institution, operates very favourably in this case, and it is most creditable, both to the manager and those personally concerned, as well as to the pupils. It would be indeed a pity that the funds generously subscribed to this institution should be expended unprofitably in education of a perfunctory character. But when we find the educational inspector able to speak so highly of the knowledge given, and that the payments according to results are so large, it proves that those who subscribed to this institution have laid out their money on a good object. Now the endowment of these schools is a special feature in which I would ask you to interest your young friends, the inmates of this institution. You have had the misfortune to lose early in life parents whose duty and pleasure it would have been to fortify and equip you for the battle of life, but you have met with friends who have taken their place and put you in this institution, giving you a good education which enables you, boys and girls, to start fair in life. I want you to feel that you are not poor children getting charity, but that you, like myself and many others who have been brought up in endowed institutions, are indebted to the liberality and foresight of your ancestors, who have endowed and raised great schools, in which a good education may be obtained ; you are like us in this respect, though your school is called an Orphanage. But, understand this, that in addition to the advantage you take of the education here afforded you, by so much do you contribute to your own maintenance, and to the success of the institution ; and when you hear that these schools have gone so far to be self-supporting, as those at the Government examination has been so good, it is for you to feel that you have yourselves earned some of the funds of the institution, and that you are, to a very great extent, self-supporting. (Applause.) That, my young friends, is honourable to you, and you may take a legitimate pride in hearing that such has been the result of the advantage you have taken of the instruction afforded you. I hope, girls and boys, you will remember what you owe to this school, and that you will turn out members of the Parsee community, and that when you are fathers and mothers of families you will look back with pride and pleasure to the years spent here, and with legitimate satisfaction to the advantage you have taken of it. I am reminded by Dr. Pinkerton's report that, like other institutions, this is growing, and I hope that its usefulness will continue to grow. Though others have done so much to keep it up in such a handsome manner, we must do something ourselves ; and hence it is desirable this endowment fund should be made to meet not only the expenses necessary for the education and support of the orphans, but for providing a retiring allowance for those who have done such good work, and who may in the season expect to retire and rest from their labours ; and therefore let me commend to the good friends of the institution this new endowment fund which has been opened, and in regard to which I, for one, shall be most proud to bear my part. (Applause.) I should

TO HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN, HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, AND THE ROYAL FAMILY.
"Amongst the many brands of Champagne, good, bad, and indifferent, it is often rather puzzling to know which to choose, but when a Wine rapidly rises into fame, and is acknowledged by Connoisseurs to be of the highest quality, it may be inferred that but little risk can be run in ordering it. This is the case with the Wine of WACHTER & Co., of Epernay, which has of late been so patronised by Royalty that it may fairly claim to be called Royal Wine."—MORNING POST.
